

Every right,
for every

CHILD

Every child has rights

It doesn't matter who I am, or where I come from.
I have rights. I have the right to be here, right now, and when I speak, others should listen and care about what I have to say. Adults have to make choices that will keep me happy and safe!

(Art. 2,3,6 & 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child).
