

Right to

Privacy

It's my right to have privacy

My privacy is protected. There are laws that help protect me and my reputation from being attacked based on my personal information and how me and my family live.

(Art. 16 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child).

